Segment overview

Semiconductor

- ◆Sales of our core modules remained sluggish across a wide range of applications, including inverters, air conditioners, and elevators.
- ♦ There are signs of gradual improvement in the prolonged inventory adjustment phase at our customers.

Power supply

- ♦ The inverter division saw increased sales, particularly of UPS (uninterruptible power supply) and fuel cell PCS (power conditioner system) products.
- ◆Sales declined for general industrial power supplies and our core surface treatment power supplies, resulting in a deterioration in contribution margin.
